SUNDAY MORNING JANUARY 26TH GATHERING:

I've noticed that a pretty clear indicator of regret is when I begin a sentence with "If only ..." If only I could go back in time - I'd make a different decision. My guess is most of us can think of a situation or a moment during our lives that we'd give up just about anything to get back. In hindsight we can see the effect a decision had and realize it cost way more than we thought possible.

If we have one thing in common it's that we all have regrets and want to be free from the guilt that our action or inaction led to. How do we deal with regret? This Sunday we'll continue looking at the grace of God and how Jesus leads us out of regret - to resolution, redemption and restoration! Looking forward to experiencing the even greater grace of God together!

LOVEWORKS: TALKING. MARRIAGE.

WEDNESDAYS / FEBRUARY 12 - MARCH 4 / 7PM / NRCC CHAPEL

Marriage is two stories coming together. Everyone grew up with a certain setting and everyone's setting is different; the joining of two stories is the joining of two settings. And the more you know about the setting of your partner's story, the better your collective story will be. What are the key scenes in your story that have shaped who you are?

There's a stream under the surface of our relationships and our desire is to help couples get to the stream by creating space for critical conversations so we can better understand one another. Then we'll be better informed on the surface issues that inevitably come up in every intimate relationship.

Whether you're beginning your marriage journey or have been married for a long time - this 4 week interactive video series is excellent for all couples who want to be intentional about having those critical conversations and have a "talking marriage."

Donald Miller wrote - "I no longer believe love works like a fairy tale but like farming. Most of it is just getting up early and tilling the soil and then praying for rain. But if we do the work, we just might wake up one day to find an endless field of crops rolling into the horizon. In my opinion, that's even better than a miracle. I'd rather earn the money than win the lottery because there's no joy in a reward unless it comes at the end of a story."

Why not take the month of February for some LoveWorks and have 4 "Date Nights" - February 12th, 19th, 26th and March 4th from 7-9pm to spend some time together with other couples, talking marriage!

Check out the details on the web site or speak to Dean or Lesley Kennedy for more information.
